Notification dated 26th November 1956.

No. R.B. 17—56. Under Section 48 (3) of the Mysore Town Municipalities Act, 1951, it is hereby notified for the information of the public of Mirle Town, that the Municipal Council, at their Special Meeting, held on 19th September 1956, have resolved to introduce in this Municipality, the undermentioned Rules, subject to modifications to the Model Rules framed by the Government, in their Notification, as noted against them. The copies of the said Rules are kept in the Municipal Office for public inspection on all working days between 9 A.M. and 5 P.M.

Any inhabitant of the Municipality or any other person objecting or suggesting to the said rules may within one month from the date of this Notification prefer his objections or suggestions in writing to the Municipal Office stating reasons therefor. Objections or suggestions received after the prescribed time will not be considered.

In accoadance with Section 46 (1) (a) of the Mysore Town Municipalities Act of 1951, the following Rules for regulating the conduct of business and delegation of any of the powers or duties and the appointment and constitution of committees of Municipal Council, have been framed for adoption by Mirle Town Municipal Council.

Proposed in accordance with the Model Rules framed by Government in their Notification No. L. 235—Ml. 138-55-1, dated 12th April 1955.

1. Business to be conducted if a quorum be present at the hour fixed for the meeting.—At the hour fixed for the meeting of the council if a quorum be present, the business of the meeting may at once commence and if, neither the President nor the Vice-President be present, the councillors present may proceed to choose a Chairman under subsection (5) of Section 27. If the President or Vice-President arrives after a presiding councillor has been chosen by the councillors, the presiding councillor shall leave the chair and the President or Vice-President shall preside.

2. Absence of quorum during a meeting.—If during a meeting the presiding authority notices that a quorum is not present or any councillor calls the attention of the presiding authority to the fact that a quorum is not present, the presiding authority shall immediately suspend the business of the meeting and shall count the number of councillors present and if that number is insufficient to form a quorum the presiding authority shall follow the procedure laid down in sub-section (7) of

3. Confirmation of Minutes of previous Meeting.—At any commencement of proceedings of each ordinary General Meeting the minutes of the previous meeting shall be read. If any councillor present objects to the minutes as having been incorrectly or incompletely recorded, the presiding authority shall, after taking the sense of the meeting, make such amendments as he thinks proper and the amended minutes shall then be confirmed and signed by the presiding authority.

4. (a) Order to be observed.—A councillor wishing to speak must rise in his place. The councillor who first rises to speak has the right to be heard. In cases of doubt the presiding authority shall decide who is entitled to speak. No interruption to the speech of a councillor shall be permitted except that the presiding authority may call the councillor to order, and any other councillor may rise and request the presiding authority to notice that a quorum is not present.

(b) Procedure for putting questions.—All questions from one councillor to another relating to the business of the meeting shall be put through the presiding authority.

5. (a) Order.—The presiding authority shall preserve order and all points of order shall be summarily decided by him, no discussion thereon being allowed unless he shall think fit to take the opinion of the councillors present. The presiding authority may adjourn any meeting that refuses to obey his ruling on a point of order.

(a) Councillor called to order to resume his seat.—A councillor called to order by the presiding authority shall resume his seat till the decision of the point of order raised, provided that the presiding authority may allow the member to speak on the point of order raised. If any councillor desires to dispute the decision of the presiding authority, he may bring forward a proposition at the following meeting.

6. Grouping of items of Business.—If more than one meeting be held the same day, it shall be competent to the presiding authority with the consent of the majority of the councillors present, to submit for consideration as one subject, for disposal by one meeting any two or more items of business relating to the same subject although some of such items shall appear on the agenda papers of another and distinct meeting to be held on the same day.

7. A proposition may be divided.—The presiding authority shall have powers to divide into two or more distinct proportions, any proposition or amendment which in his opinion is so complicated as to be likely to lead into confusion or inconvenience by being debated on as one proposition.

A proposition when divided need not be moved and seconded more than once; but when by virtue of this rule a proposition or amendment is divided, it shall not be necessary unless the presiding authority divides to the contrary for the second and following portions of such proposition or amendment to be again separately moved and seconded. But the propositions so divided shall be put to the vote by the presiding authority one after the other.

8. Mode of addressing the meeting.—Each councillor rising to speak shall direct his speech to the question before the meeting or an amendment which he is himself about to propose or to a point of order always addressing the presiding authority from his place. A councillor having spoken to a proposition or amendment is not at liberty to speak again to such proposition or amendment:

Provided that the mover of a proposition or amendment shall have a right of reply, after the presiding authority has ascertaided that no other councillor entitled to speak desires to speak.

Provided further that any councillor may second a proposition or amendment by saying "I second the proposition or amendment" and may reserve his right to speak later.

Provided also that a councillor who wishes to explain any misconception of expressions used by him may do so with the permission of the presiding authority.

9. Routine resolutions may be put to meeting without being moved or seconded.—Routine resolutions such as recording periodical statements or confirming the proceedings may be put to the meeting without being moved or seconded. Propositions regarding the choice of a presiding councillor, adjournments and the like must be seconded, but need not be in writing.

Except as provided above, every proposition and every amendment must be in writing and must be seconded.

Resolutions of Committees to be moved and seconded by members.—When a resolution of a committee is submitted to the general meeting for adoption, its adoption should ordinarily be moved and seconded by members of the committee.

10. Amendments.—After the proposition has been moved and seconded, any councillor may propose an amendment thereto.

Provided that no councillor shall be at liberty to propose more than one amendment to any proposition except when such proposition is for the passing of a budget or of a set of general rules or is otherwise of such a nature as to require the making of many amendments to different parts of it.

11. Presiding authority to read propositions to the meeting.—The proposer of any amendment shall state it or hand it in writing to the presiding authority at any time before he resumes his seat. When the mover of a proposition or amendment has resumed his seat, the presiding authority shall read the proposition or amendment to the meeting and ask if any councillor seconds the proposition or amendment and until the same is seconded, the presiding authority shall not permit any discussion on the question. If no councillor seconds the proposition or amendment, the presiding authority shall declare that the proposition or amendment is lost.

12. Speeches should not be read.—A councillor shall not read his speech but may refresh his memory from notes and may with the consent of the presiding authority read passages from books or documents cited on behalf of his argument.

13 Any councillor may move proposition of which notice has been given if original mover is absent or unwilling.—If a councillor has given due notice to move a proposition, and if that councillor be not present at the meeting or shall have ceased to be a councillor before the meeting or be unwilling to move the proposition of which he has given notice, any councillor present at the meeting may with the consent of the presiding authority move the proposition of which notice has been given.

14 Amendments to omit words etc., from original propositions to be clear and relevant and not mere negative of previous propositions.—An amendment shall usually be in the form of a proposal to omit words from the original proposition to insert words therein or to add words thereto.

Every amendment must be relevant to the proposition, it is proposed to amend and must be framed so as to form therewith an intelligible and consistent sentence. An amendment which is the direct negative of the proposition shall not be allowed.

15 Amendments may be sent to the President before hand in writing.—A councillor, who intends to propose an amendment to a proposition, is at liberty to send or deliver at any time before hand to the President or the presiding authority his proposed amendment in writing.

16 Each amendment to be decided before the next is entered upon.—Each amendment must be decided before the next amendment is entered upon, but after any amendment has been proposed and seconded any councillor may move that the amendment be amended by the omission, insertion or addition of certain words and the presiding authority shall therefore ask if any other councillor second the proposal and if seconded, the proposal to amend the amendment shall then become the question before the meeting.

17 No amendments to words already resolved be made.—No amendment may be made towords which it has already been resolved shall stand part of it, or to be added to the original proposition or amendment except by addition of other words.

18 Amendments once negatived not to be proposed.—No amendment may be proposed which is the same in substance as a prop sition or amendment which has been negatived during the meeting.

seconded cannot be withdrawn without the permission of the meeting.

20 Presiding authority to move propositions without quitting chair.—The presiding authority may move and second propositions or amendments, speak or vote without vacating the chair.

21 Voting.—When a question is put to vote, the presiding authority shall call for a show of hands, and the presiding authority or a councillor at his request shall count the hands shown for and against and declare the result. If any councillor challenges the correctness of the numbers thus declared, the hands shall be counted a second time : provided that if any two councillors request a poll, the presiding authority shall call the roll of the councillors and record on the minutes of the meeting the names of the councillors voting for and against.

The presiding authority, unless he refrains from voting, should give his vote before declaring the number of votes for and against a question and then in the case of an equality of votes he should give his casting vote.

22 No member obliged to vote.—A councillor who is present at a meeting may refrain from voting. If the question before the meeting be the confirmation of a report or proceedings of a committee, the member of that committee may vote. If the conduct of a councillor be in question, that councillor may vote.

23 Result of equality of votes.—When there is an equality of votes and the presiding authority refrains from giving his casting vote, the proposition shall be held to be neither passed nor rejected and may be brought forward at any subsequent meeting.

24 Budget discussion.—When a budget or re-appropriation statement is laid down before a general meeting the procedure shall be as follows :—

(i) The presiding authority shall read each item of the abstracts of receipts and expenditure and shall without any mover or seconder put to the meeting the question that this item stand part of the budget or reappropriation statement.

(ii) If any councillor propose to reduce or increase or strike off the item and the proposal to be seconded, such proposal shall be treated as an amendment and shall become the question before the meeting.

25 Proposals to adjourn a meeting or for closure or to postponing, etc.—A proposal to adjourn a meeting or closure or to postpone the consideration of a question shall take precedence over any other proposition before the meeting.
